ANGLO-FRENCH FLEET IS HUNTING SUBMARINE BASE

London, Jan. 18. (UPI)—A central news dispatch from Athens today says:

An Anglo-French fleet has been searching the inlets of the Greek islands with the object of discovering the bases of German and Austrian submarines.

The Turks have removed 100 guns from the Gallipoli peninsula to Xanthi to the eastward of the allied line at Salonika.

One hundred and twenty thousand Austrians and Germans are being massed at Giengen.

GERMANS AGAIN SHELL CITY OF LENS EFFECTIVELY

Berlin, Jan. 18. (UPI)—The following statement was issued today by German army headquarters:

"Western theater: Artillery activity along the front has been greater than recently, weather conditions being somewhat improved."

"Lens has again been actively shelled."

"There have been aerial battles near Paschendaele and Dardzelle in Flanders. Three out of four occupants of one machine were killed. A French aeroplane was shot down by one of our airmen near Moenave. The pilot and observer were captured."

"Eastern theater: Near Dubnik, southeast of Riga, the Russians under cover of night and of snowstorms succeeded in surprising small German posts and destroying them."

"In the Balkan theater there is nothing to report."
